

NOTICE OF INTENT TO PROSECUTE

Any inmate who leaves or fails to return to the Pima County Adult Detention Complex from an authorized release activity shall be charged with escape in the second degree, a class five (5) felony.

Escape in the second degree, Arizona Revised Statute Number 13-2503, is punishable by up to two (2) years in prison. This sentence shall run consecutively to any other sentence including probation.

As an inmate in the Pima County Adult Detention Complex, you should be aware that it is the intention of the Pima County Sheriff's Department to prosecute any escape to the fullest extent of the law.
